

Lady Annabella
Crusty-Jones has never heard of Daddy Longlegs.

So what!

Daddylonglegs the poster
Album to be RE released
This winter some time

Get the poster and get
The disc

All money goes to help veterans

This was my hit record forty years ago

Where will this go today

August 26, 2009

Sometimes wish
Was a little bird
Living by the side of tree
Flying over everyone

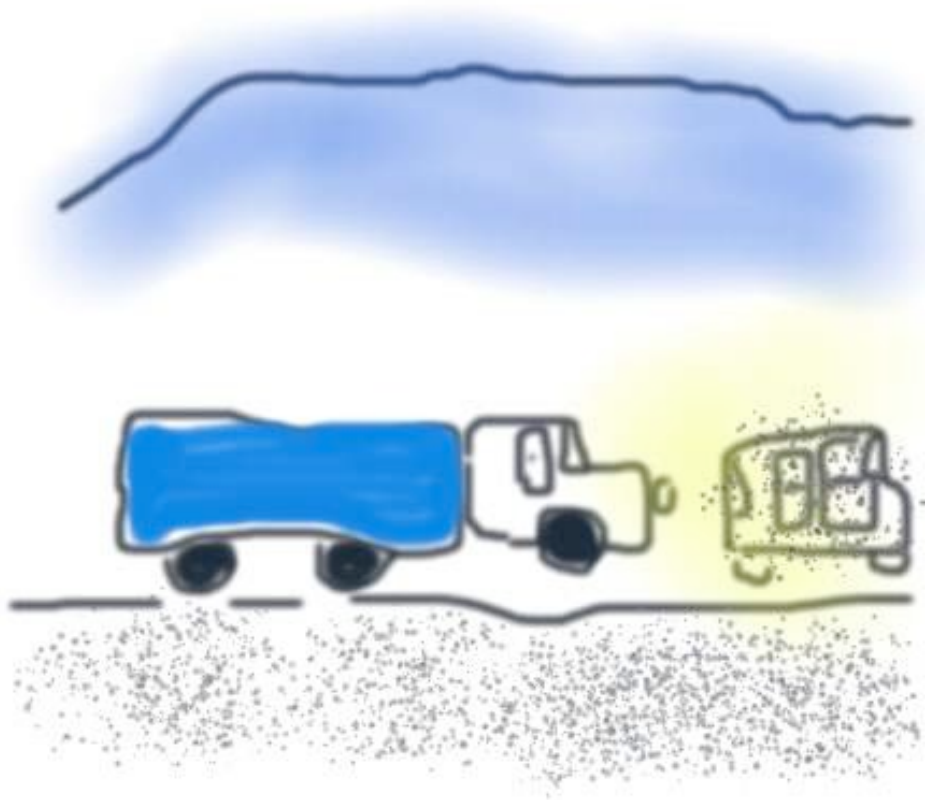

Not a care in the world

Under blue skies

O well....probably I would get eaten by a hawk

Finally get to a golf course. Have tried to avoid them. Golf courses take up enough fertilizer to feed all the people in the world. Without golf, we could rebuild the farm land of the planet. So there I am getting off my righteous high horse and teeing off just like Tiger Woods

BOUNCING ALONG THE BLUE RIDGE

Here I come
Bouncing along Blue Ridge Mountains
On more time

They sure are blue
Big semi trucks on my back

Lights in my face

Coming across mountains of Pennsylvania
Down along the ridge line

Into Virginia all the way to Tennessee

CAME BACK HERE TO SING

Let my voice ring out
In these trees

Singing and wailing
Ukulele and me

In those trees
Beside those mountains

Out in the flat lands heading up
To Harlan or over to Boone

Got this country running through me

Like a river or train
